If you don't remote control me.

You turned a rainbow full of colour

Into a pocket full of gold

You advertise and evangelise

And your stories getting old

You took away my innocence

And you tell me to live in fear

Well baby ill start panicking

When the end is getting near.

So come on and hook me up

And help me get my kicks

Come on and tune me in to channel 66

You got to turn me on to my TV
Cos I get out of control
If you donâ€™t remote control me.

E

Out out out of control
Thereâ€™s a million souls out of control
Out out of control
Thereâ€™s a million souls out of control
Out out out of control
Thereâ€™s a million souls out of control
Out out of control
Thereâ€™s a million souls out of control

Well you cheat on me with politics
And you dance around the war
You turn me onto big brother
And i m at every lottery draw
You know I hate you more than ever
But youâ€™re still in every room
Oh well I guess your telling me
To consume and to consume

So come on and hook me up
And help me get my kicks
Come on and tune me in to channel 66
You got to turn me on to my TV
Cos I get out of control
If you donâ€™t remote control me
Cos I get out of control
If you donâ€™t remote control me
Cos I get out of control
If you donâ€™t remote control me.
