Intro:

C - C

[Verse]

C
Itâ€™s a really old city
F
Stuck between the dead and the living
Em7 G
So I thought to myself, sitting on a graveyard shelf
Am F Em7
As the echo of heartbeats, from the ground below my feet
G
Filled a cemetery in the center of Queens
C F
I started running the maze of
Em7
The names and the dates, some older than others
G
The skyscrapers, little tombstone brothers
Am F
With Manhattan behind her, three million stunning reminders
Em7 G
Built a cemetery in the center of Queens

[Chorus]

C Em F
You said, remember that life is, not meant to be wasted
G
We can always be chasing the sun!

C Em F
So fill up your lungs and just run
G C
But always be chasing the sun!

[Verse]

C F Em7
 So how do you do it, With just words and just music, capture the feeling
G
 That my earth is somebody's ceiling,
Am F
 can I deliver in sound, the weight of the ground
Em7 G
 Of a cemetery in the center of Queens
C
 There's a history through her
F Em7
 Sent to us as a gift from the future, to show us the proof
G
 More than that, it's to dare us to move
Am F
 To open our eyes and to learn from the sky
Em7 G
 From a cemetery in the center of Queens

[Chorus]

C Em F
 You said, remember that life is, Not meant to be wasted
G
 We can always be chasing the sun!
C Em F
 So fill up your lungs and just run
G
 But always be chasing the sun!

 All we can do is try
Am F G
 And live like we're still alive
