

Hercules

Sara Bareilles

Not necessarily the correct chord variations, but they work.

Capo 1

[intro]

G Bm F F
G Bm F Em

[verse]

G Bm F
I miss the days my mind would just rest quiet
G Bm F Em
My imagination hadn t turned on me yet
G Bm F
I used to let my words wax poetic
C Cm
But it melted a puddle at my feet now
G Bm F
It is a calcifying crime, it s tragic
G Bm F Em
I ve turned to petrified past life baggage
G Bm F
I want to disappear and just start over
C
So here we are
C
And I ll breathe again

[chorus]

Em G D
Cause I have sent for a warrior
D
From on my knees, make me a Hercules
Em G D
I was meant to be a warrior please
D
Make me a Hercules

G Bm F Em

[verse]

G Bm F

I've lost a grip on where I started from
G                    Bm                    F                    Em
I wish I'd thought ahead and left a few crumbs
G                    Bm                    F
I'm on the hunt for who I've not yet become
C                    Cm
But I'd settle for a little equilibrium

G                    Bm                    F
There is a war inside my heart gone silent
G                    Bm                    F                    Em
Both sides dissatisfied and somewhat violent
G                    Bm                    F
The issue I have now begun to see
C                    Cm
I am the only lonely casualty
This is not the end, no

[chorus]

Em                    G                    D
Cause I have sent for a warrior
D
From on my knees, make me a Hercules
Em                    G                    D
I was meant to be a warrior please
D
Make me a Hercules

G   Bm   F   Em

[bridge]

Am                    Em
This is my darkest hour
Em                    D
A long road has led me out here
Am                    Em                    C
But I only need turn around to face the light
Am                    D
And decide flight or fight
