Counting Sheep
Sarah Blasko

```
              SARAH BLASKO -  Always Worth It
         From the album  The Overture & Underscore (2005)
```

Cadd9   Bb6
If itâ€™s all the same to you, Iâ€™ve decided that Iâ€™m lacking proof
A basic thread of unbelief could unravel your attempt at truth
You could blame it on her, you could pin it on him â€" thatâ€™d be a lie
â€˜Cos thereâ€™s no subtle dispute or selfless pursuit
         G
Those things are marked by what they hide

Dadd11   Cadd9   G Cadd9 G Cadd9
No surprise that youâ€™ve found yourself in too deep
Blame your chequered past for your lack of sleep
But make sure you count you blessings while youâ€™re counting sheep

If nothing more remains for you, itâ€™s decided that you leave confused
A simple case of hit and miss, you offered something more than you can give You could blame it on her, you could pin it on him â€" but you donâ€™t want a fight
And thereâ€™s no subtle dispute or selfless pursuit
Those things are marked by what they hide

No surprise that youâ€™ve found yourself in too deep
Blame your chequered past for your lack of sleep
But make sure you count you blessings while youâ€™re counting sheep

Cadd9   Dadd11   G   Dadd11   G
Asleep in your uncertain future no one else can tell you what you came here for or read your thoughts
If confidence is open-ended thereâ€™s no guarantee youâ€™ll be protected now;
thereâ€™s no safety house
Cadd9   G
You canâ€™t just stay and rest here in my regard for you

No surprise that youâ€™ve found yourself in too deep
Blame your chequered past for your lack of sleep
But make sure you count you blessings while youâ€™re counting, while youâ€™re
counting sheep

PS: I will add a chord chart latter.