

I Could Never Belong To You
Sarah Blasko

This might not be entirely correct, but oh well. A not so good tab is better than no isn't it?

Bm A
Love is something of an art

Bm A
When we are led by such divided hearts

Bm A
Painted black, their centre red

Bm A
Beating now, they're loaded with regret

Bm A
Full of memories that you can't neglect

D C G
Of all the things that you've yet to prove

Bm A
Oh the times I've thought this whole thing through

Bm A
Lived whole lifetimes in disguise from you

Bm A
How can I hold to a pale idea

Bm A
When you've given everything you can

Bm A
And by everything you feel, you stand

D C G
But I could never belong to you

Bm A
For all the troubles of an onward path

Bm A
The confusion lacks a tragic punch

Bm A
When we take the desired turns

Bm A
All we have is all we can find

Bm A
No-one else can make this mine

[and so on. The chords are more or less the same throughout the song so I think you can out the rest for yourself]

I could never belong to you
Pictures in the family ark
Faces faded, stories gone
One sure light from eras dark

Two by two they all marched on
But I could never belong to you
