I thought about it tonight, Iâ€™m lucky to be alive
I never thought these city lights would ever shine so bright
Floating on the surface, threatened to be dragged down
I thought I was lost forever, it turns out Iâ€™m alright

Cadd9 Cadd9/A Cadd9 Cadd9/A
Sweetest November, winter wasnâ€™t here forever
Cadd9 Cadd9/A Em
Time to rest your weary head in the sun
Sweetest November, the worldâ€™s renewed its colour
Only just in time to welcome summer

I thought about you tonight, Iâ€™m lucky that youâ€™re alive
Even in these uncertain times, youâ€™ll make it through the night
You were floating on the surface, threatened to be dragged down
I thought you were gone forever, it turns out youâ€™ve been found

Sweetest November, winter wasnâ€™t here forever
Time to rest your weary head in the sun
Sweetest November, the worldâ€™s renewed its splendour
Only just in time to welcome summer

Captured in this light, beauty will survive

Purified by fire you have made it to the sea

Sweetest November, winter wasnâ€™t here forever
Time to rest your weary head in the sun
Sweetest November, the worldâ€™s renewed its colour
Only just in time to welcome summer
