

We Wont Run
Sarah Blasko

We Wonâ€™t Run
Sarah Blasko

Bb Eb Gm F

Pages turning, lights are burning,
See what you could not see.
As plain as the day, the night makes you pay,
For what was hidden underneath.
Longing to leave, but begging to feel,
That something will make you stay.
You gotta believe, that this all leads,
To somewhere we ve never been.

We won t run, we can fight,
All that keeps us up at night.
There is far, to go now,
Let s not waste a minute more, in denial.

But I always thought, you knew yourself
Better than anyone.
But the season was lost
When you started listening, to everyone else.
Cast in this devil, I ve got the metal,
The means to make things right.
Tired of guilt, tired of being sorry,
Haven t we suffered enough?

We won t run, we can fight,
All that keeps us up at night.
There is far to go now,
Let s not waste a minute more.

We won t run, we can fight,
All that keeps us up at night.
There is far to go now,
Let s not waste a minute more.

Bb Eb Gm F

We won t run, we can fight,
 All that keeps us up at night.
 There is far, to go now,
 Let s not waste a minute more.

We won t fear, we can fight,
 All that we can bring to light.
 There is far, to go now,
 Let s not waste a minute more.

We won t run, we can fight,
 All that keeps us up at night.
 There is far, to go now,
 Let s not waste a minute more.

Of our lives,
 Our lives (2x)
 Our lives.
