

Scarborough Fair
Sarah Brightman

Intro:

```
|----5-8-7---5-----5-8-7---5-----5-8-7---5----0-----|
|-----8-----8-----8-----5-----|
|-----0-----5--5---|
|-0-----0-----3-----2---|
|-----|
|-----|
```

```
|----5-8-7---5-----5-----|
|-----8-----5---5---|
|-----7---|
|-0-----0-----0----- (2x)|
|-----|
|-----|
```

Dm                                  C                                  Dm
Are you going to Scarborough Fair?
F                                  Dm                                  F    G                                  Dm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Dm                                  F                                  F    C/E    Dm                                  C
Remember me to one who lives there
Dm                                  C    Dm
He once was a true love of mine

Dm    C                                  Dm
Tell him to make me a cambric shirt
F                                  Dm                                  F    G                                  Dm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Dm    F                                  F    C/E    Dm                                  C
Without no seams nor needle work
Dm                                  C    Dm
Then he ll be a true love of mine

Dm    C                                  Dm
Tell him to find me an acre of land
F                                  Dm                                  F    G                                  Dm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Dm    F                                  F    C/E    Dm                                  C
Between salt water and the sea strands
Dm                                  C    Dm
Then he ll be a true love of mine

Dm    C
Tell him to reap it with a sickle of leather
F                                  Dm                                  F    G                                  Dm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Dm    F                                  F    C/E    Dm                                  C

And gather it all in a bunch of heather

Dm                      C                      Dm

Then he ll be a true love of mine

Dm                          C                          Dm

Are you going to Scarborough Fair?

F                      Dm                      F    G                      Dm

Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme

Dm                      F                      F                      C/E                      Dm                      C

Remember me to one who lives there

Dm                      C                      Dm

He once was a true love of mine