

Scarborough Fair
Sarah Brightman

Intro:

```
|-----5-8-7---5-----5-8-7---5-----5-8-7---5-----0-----|
|-----8-----8-----8-----5-----|
|-----0-----5--5---|
|-0-----0-----3-----2---|
|-----|
|-----|
```

```
|-----5-8-7---5-----5-----|
|-----8-----5---5---|
|-----7---|
|-0-----0-----0----- (2x)|
|-----|
|-----|
```

Ebm                    C#                    Ebm
Are you going to Scarborough Fair?
F#                    Ebm                    F# G#                    Ebm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Ebm                    F#                    F# C#/E Ebm C#
Remember me to one who lives there
Ebm                    C#                    Ebm
He once was a true love of mine

Ebm                    C#                    Ebm
Tell him to make me a cambric shirt
F#                    Ebm                    F# G#                    Ebm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Ebm                    F#                    F# C#/E Ebm C#
Without no seams nor needle work
Ebm                    C#                    Ebm
Then he ll be a true love of mine

Ebm                    C#                    Ebm
Tell him to find me an acre of land
F#                    Ebm                    F# G#                    Ebm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Ebm                    F#                    F# C#/E Ebm C#
Between salt water and the sea strands
Ebm                    C#                    Ebm
Then he ll be a true love of mine

Ebm                    C#
Tell him to reap it with a sickle of leather
F#                    Ebm                    F# G#                    Ebm
Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme
Ebm                    F#                    F# C#/E Ebm C#

