again, i was looking for sarah harmer tabs and there seemed to be only one version of dogs and thunder..this version sucked so badly that iâ€™ve decided to give it a try myself.. i think itâ€™s pretty close so check it out..

Standard Tuning: EADGBe
Capo: 2nd Fret

Chords: (written as used without capo)

	A*	A	E	D
e	-0-----   --0---   --0---   --2---
B	-0-----   --2---   --0---   --3---
G	-2-----   --2---   --1---   --2---
D	-2-----   --2---   --2---   --0---
A	-0-----   --0---   --2---   --0---
E	-0-----   --0---   --0---   --0(2)

The A* and the A chord are slightly different from eachother. From the a-chord, the second fret of the b-string should be hammered on while strumming between these two chords.

Variate a bit with the D-chord every now and then at the end of each sentence.

Intro:

A* A E D x2

Verse:

A*                    A                    E                    D

A rife sits behind her sleeping ear

A*                      A                      E                      D
Echo on the cold wall, closest neighbour couldn't hear

A*    E                      E    D
We dug a hole in the fall____

A*    E                      D (single strums)
So now it's a frozen burial

E                      D |                      | ( A* A E D ) x2
And she's gone__, just before the new year

A*                      A                      E                      D
Well i'm gonna build a cross for her spot between the trees

A*                      A                      E                      D
And stick it in firm so it won't sway in the breeze

A*                      E                      D (single strums)
You and i have trouble making up our half-assed minds

A*    E |                      D
But she'd seen sixteen years__ of our kind

E                      D |                      | ( A* A E D ) x2
What's it like__|, when your memories start to freeze

E    A*    D    A
Oh__and i wonder__

E                      A*                      D    A***
What it is about dogs and thunder__

E                      A*    E                      A*                      D
What they hear, coming over the field__

E                      A*                      D                      A***
Back hall shelter, warm nights in summer

E                      A*                      D                      A***
Shaking the ground that you lie under

E                      A***
Well i know you're not here

E                      A*                      D                      ( A* A E D ) x2

But at least you don't feel it anymore__

D

And i came to see you, on the day that it happened

A***

E

D (single strums)

You said "Hey sorry Sar, but i gotta go"

D

And i was trying to read, some sort of reaction

A***

E

D

(single strums)

Something you just can't show

D

So i guess it's time i go

A***

E

D

Across the snowy barnyard, just past the driving shed

A***

D

Shadow of me in the moon, well i was in the movie in my head

A***

D

This pile of dirt on the ground

A***

E

D

(single strums)

Will sink when nobody's around

E

D

A***

E

D

Winter covers everything, but everything's not dead

E

A***

D

A

Oh__and i wonder__

E

A***

D

A***

What it is about dogs and thunder__

E

A***

E

A***

D

What they hear, coming over the field__

E

A***

D

A***

Back hall shelter, warm nights in summer

E                    A*                    D                    A***
Shaking the ground that you lie under

E                                    A*                                    (play this last part 3 times)
Well i know youâ€™re not here

E                                    A*                                    D
But at least you donâ€™t feel it anymore__

Outro:

A* A E D      x4
