First tab. Iâ€™m not sure itâ€™s a 100% right, but sounds good to me so far. I have really basic guitar skills, so feel free to comment and adjust. I would be glad if there were more tabs of Sarah Jane Morris, her music is definitively worth it!

Youâ€™re a dog without a bark Em
Youâ€™re the night without the dark C
Youâ€™re really nowhere at all G

Youâ€™re a song without a tune
An astronaut without her moon
Youâ€™re really nowhere at all

And where I am is this crowded cafÃ© C G
And I sit here all on my own, knowing C G
every single damn ringtone is destined C Am
For somebody elses phone D

Youâ€™re the beach without the summer
Youâ€™re the Clash without Joe Strummer
Youâ€™re really nowhere at all

Youâ€™re a table with no chairs
A banister without his stairs
Youâ€™re really nowhere at all

And where I am is this crowded cafÃ©
And I sit here all on my own
Knowing every single damn ringtone is destined
For somebody elses phone â€|

But itâ€™s never gonna ring for me C
No itâ€™s never gonna ring for meeee C G
Oh I sit here all alone, F
waiting for that damn ring tone C
To ring for me yeah yeah yeah Am D

Solo

And where I am is this crowded café
And I sit here all on my own
Knowing every single damn ringtone is destined
For somebody else's phone

Repeat first Verse

Then Bridge + chorus till the end
