Loving, lying enemy

Never thought again I d see

I didn t want to anymore

Em D/F# G
I remember your loving eyes
 C Em
And the moonlit kiss

The evening lullabies

I would truly miss

The midnight whispers, the midday calls to feel...

Every time I see you,
 I can t help but look away
 All along I had believed in everything you d say

When I look now, I know
 I ve seen your face before
 I don t want your deceiving smile standing at my door

And I don t care what people say,
 I m ready now to face this day
 Cos I have lost you along the way

When you ask for forgiveness, you re asking too much
 I have sheltered my heart in a place you can t touch
 I don t believe when you tell me, that your love is real...
 Cos you don t know much about heaven, boy if you have to hurt
