I Will Not Forget You Sarah McLachlan

This is the live version I found on YouTube. The capo is on the 5th fret. I m pretty sure that this is how it s played, but please correct any errors. :)

Also: The C chord is played with the 3rd fret held down on e. Also, feel free to play with this chord letting B open every now and again.. Seems like Sarah does that.

so the C in this song is:
E 3
B 1
G 0
D 2
A 3
E 0

Intro: Am F C (x2)

Verse:

C Am \mathbf{F} I remember the nights I watched as you lay sleeping Am F C Your body gripped by some faraway dream F C Am Well I was scared and so in love then Am F C And so lost all of you that I had seen

Bridge:

Dm Δm But no one ever talked in the darkness Fm Am No voice ever added fuel to the fire Dm Αm No light ever shone in the doorway \mathbf{F} G Deep in the hollow of earthly desires Am Dm But if in some dream there was brightness Fm Am If in some memory some sort of sigh Dm Am And flesh be revived in the shadows

```
F G
Blessed our bodies would lay so entwined and
```

Chorus:

CGFI will oh I will not forget youCGFNor will I ever let you goCGFI will oh I will not forget you

Verse:

I remember when you left in the morning at daybreak So silent you stle from my bed To go back to the one who possesses you soul And back tot he life that I dread

Bridge:

So I ran like the wind to the water Please don t leave me again I cried And I drew bitter tears at the ocean But all that came back was the tide

Chorus

... It s really pretty simple.
I may be off on the Fm, it may just be an F.. So, play with that and see what sounds to you. It was hard for me to discern because the vocals were so overwhelming at this point the song.

Hope you enjoy.. it s mostly correct, for sure. Check
