

Passing Strangers
Sarah Vaughan

D                      Em7              A7      D                      Ebdim              Em7
We seem like passing strangers now, how can you hurry    by.

D                      Ebdim                      Em7                      A7
There were never two who loved, half as much as you and I.

D                      Em7              A7      D                      Ebdim              Em7
We seem like passing strangers now, funny how, things can change.

D                      Ebdim              Em7                      B7
We were so inseparable, now you're acting very strange.

Em7                      A7                      D              Bm
The hands I used to touch don't even wave hello.

G#m7                      C#7                      F#m              A7
How I miss your kiss, you'll never know.

D                      Em7      A7      D                      Ebdim              Em7
If you would only turn to me, speak my name just once more.

D                      B7                      G                      A7              D
You might find right there and then. Strangers can be lovers again
