I want to believe....

                   then play a C then a G repeat riff as you like it...
The song itself is
   G
          D
When will I die - when will I marry
        D
Why do I cry for nothin sometimes
       D
Why do I feel like I m in a hurry
     Em
Feels like a race and I m out of time
     C G
                D
Like a lover turning into a friend
Somewhere a heart is gettin broken again
C G D
How does the whole thing end?
I want to believe in something for real
I want to believe in something I feel
(ok, I m gettin tired of this so here s the rest of the words)
I want to believe it s all that I need I want to believe
Who will be king - and who will be beggar?
when will I have this mystery solved
who said a ring - could mean love forever
Nothing s for sure - except growing old
Will I always be here spinning my wheels or does misfortune have a hand in the deal is that how my fate is sealed?
I want to believe love has chance to survive

Where is my home - and where am I going? When will I know and how will I know? I had a lover who truned into a friend I had a heart but it got broken again And I don t know if it ever will mend Is this how the whole thing ends?

Any way, good luck on this song...it s a good one, and if anyone else helps you finish it..mail me back what you got.
