

When You Got To New York
Saturday Looks Good to Me

I love Saturday Looks Good To Me. Someone more talented than me should try to figure out some more of their songs. Anyway, I hope this is accurate enough for you to play along. Have fun!

G D G D
When you got to New York you were sleeping on floors
 G D A
But you were sure it was better
 G D
And you would get hungry
 G D G D A
You didn't have money but you drank every night
 G D
Between the subways and sunshine
 G D G D A
There just wasn't the time to write any letters
 G D
But it was out of your hands
 G D
You hoped your friends would understand
 G D A
You never felt so high in your life
 Bm D Bm D
But now you're out of breath from your cheap cigarettes
 Bm D A
And the wrong side of Seven A.M.
 Bm D Bm D
You can't sit still but you eventually will
 Bm D A
Cause every night comes to an end

G D G D
So draw up a list of new things to resist
 G D A
And the people you kissed last year
G D G D G D A
Then on the back draw a map to the ones that are still there
Bm D Bm D
Not one part of your skyscraper heart
 Bm D A
Can figure out which is for real
 Bm D Bm D
You can't come clean when you're stuck in between
 Bm D A
These ways that you constantly feel

A G D
So what do you tell yourself?

G D A
What do you tell the strangers that sleep in your room?

A G D
Oh, what do you tell your friends?

G D A
What do you tell the lovers that left you too soon?

G
Where did they run off to?

G D G D
Give me a reason that I can believe in

G D A
And I will believe in you

G D G D
Tell me a reason why I should believe

G D A
Cause I want to, I want to

G D G D
Tell me a story or tell me a secret

G D A
It don t have to be nothing new

G D G D
Just hold on to me while we walk through the leaves

G D A
If you want to, if you want to

A
Cause I want to know

G D
What do you tell yourself?

G D A
What do you tell the darkness that stays in your room?

A G D
Oh, what do you see at night

G D A
When all of last year s lights are no longer of interest to you?

G D
What do you hold on to?
