

Dying Day
Saves the Day

Hey guys, I couldn't find a good tab for this song and so I thought I'd do it myself. It sounds pretty close to the acoustic version from the bug sessions so I'm sure if you try and cover it with these chords by the camp fire nobody will complain. Standard tuning.

E - 022100

B - 024400

C# - 046600

G# - 446654 (barred)

G#m - 446454 (barred)

A# - 688000

A - 577000

G#pow - 455000(not to be confused with the octave high barred G#)

I'm living in a dark and dying day
E B
And everything is lost along the way
G# G#m
the feeling in my heart is not the same forever I've been lost in long ago - Woah oh ohhhh!

B C# B (palm mute)
C# B
and it seems so long to let live a life that I don't live no more
B C# B
C# B
and in the saddened sun my life leaves a shadow that'll soon be gone

E B
I'm standing in the grave I wait to bleed
E B
been tearing out my tongue in misery

G# G#m
been choking on the weight of my mistakes

B C#/B
though I can't change

B C# B (palm mute)

been blinded by the pain of my regret wasted life reliving yesterday
