

A Walk Through Hell
Say Anything

And if I could swim, I d swim out to you in the ocean,

Swim out to where you were floating in the dark.

And if I was blessed, I d walk on the water you re breathing,

To lend you some air for that heaving, sunken chest.

Cause they chose you as the model for their empty little dreams,

With your new head and your legs spread like a filthy magazine.

And they hunt you, and they gut you, and you give in.

And if I was brave, I d climb up to you on the mountain,

They led you to drink from their fountain spouting lies.

And I d slay the horrible beast they commissioned

To steer me away from my mission to your eyes.

And I d stand there, like a soldier, with my foot upon his chest,

With my grin spread, and my arms out, in my bloodstained Sunday s best,

And you d hold me; I d remind you who you are under their shell.

I d walk through hell for you, let it burn right through my shoes

These soles are useless without you

Through hell for you, let the torturing ensue;

My soul is useless without you...

And if they send a whirlwind, I d hug it like a harmless little tree.
 D A E F#m
Or an earthquake, I d calm it, and I d bring you back to me.
 D A E
And I d hold you in my weak arms like a first born.

I d walk through hell for you, let it burn right through my shoes
 A E F#m D
These soles are useless without you

A E F#m D
Through hell for you, let the torturing ensue;
 A E F#m
My soul is useless without you...

A E D
Through hell for you
A E D
Through hell for you
 E E
Without you, without you...
A E D
Through hell for you.

Without you...
A E D
Through hell for you

D A E
Now I ve walked through hell for you.
