E   C Asus2
E   C Asus2

    E
I used to have a heart worth a billion bucks
      C   Asus2
Now it s shitty, shoddy cheap
E
Sell it in my sleep for the fakes to eat
       C   Asus2   E
While they kiss my ass and tell me what I need:
                     C   Asus2
Sex fiends with a vacant dream, a tattoo of a soul
     E
And the words you said, still ringing in my head
    C   Asus2
Wonder where the love they stole is hiding

C   Em G   D
All I want to do is be mended by you
     C   Em G   D
I don t want to be confused, I just want to find you
C   Em G   D
All I want to kill is that which keeps me ill
    C   Em G   D
Underwhelmed and unfulfilled

      Am
They re in denial of the knowledge
       C   D
That they re living in a lame excuse

      Am   C   D
They re in denial of the fact they re fed like the gorging of the truth

```
             Am                                      C                 D
It s not alright with me, the love I lack, I need, I want you back
             Am                              C
It s not alright with me, The circle torn apart
     D           E
I used to have a heart

E C Asus2
E C Asus2

     E
I used to know a girl with the deepest trust
      C                    Asus2
That a man could ever know
E
Broke her neck from the lack of respect
        C                 Asus2           E
That I learned as an embryo on the west coast
E
Where the dead paint Hollywood red
     C                                        Asus2
The facade is well-fed with the blood of the Capulets
E                                   C
Spread like jelly on bread across the doors of the first-borns
Asus2
Weaned from birth on meds

C             Em     G               D
All I want to say is this could be okay
        C                 Em   G             D
I don t want to be a slave, I just want to spend my days
C                 Em           G               D
Wandering through the haze, your voice to lead the way
       C     Em      G       D
I can finally go and say â€œHeyâ€•

          Am
I was in denial of the knowledge that
      C                 D
I was living in an empty lie.
           Am
They re in denial of what you are to me
   C                 D
My heart, my love, my guide
          Am                            C                 D
It s not alright with me, the love I lack, I need, I want you back
           Am                            C
It s not alright with me, The circle torn apart
      D
I used to have a heart

   G           (D/F#)*        E
```

There you are in front of me
G   (D/F#)   E
Luminescent as you used to be
G   (D/F#)   E
Just sing the saddest song for me, revive me
G (D/F#)   E
      Revive me
Yeah!

Am C D x3
Woah! Come on, come on, yeah!

Am C D   E
      I used to have a heart

*You don t have to play the D/F#, but I like it there.
