

A Conversation
Scattered Trees

Ok guys this is my first tab so please let me know if there s anything wrong or worth improving,I think it s played in the acoustic version with a whole-step down tuning. it s just chords i m afraid but you may want to experiment with picking in the verses.

First of all, used this living room session which gives a good acoustic take on the song so check it out...

[the rest continues with a similiar chord sequence, words below] it s 2 am and my words are wearing thin on you, my friend and the stars are growing dim there were things that i meant but i never ever said just to hurt you and they did

and now i m sorry, i m sorry i m sorry, i m sorry that everybody s falling apart you said it doesn t haunt you like it haunts me

you said i ll be there when you wake up from this dream when you turn your life into a story oh and i ll tell every ghost, everyone that i see i m waiting here i m ready for you

you said it doesn t haunt you like it haunts me
