

Return To Oz
Scissor Sisters

(intro) Cm

Cm

Once there was a man

Eb

Bb

G

who had a little too much time on his hands

G#

he never stopped to think that he was getting older.

Cm

When his night came to an end

B

F#

He tried to grasp for his last friend and pretend

Bb

G#

That he could wish himself health on a four leaf clover

B

He said is this the return to Oz?

E

G

B

The grass is dead, the gold is brown and the sky has claws

There s a wind up man walking round and round

E

B

What once was Emerald City is now a crystal town

Cm

Its three o clock in the morning

Eb

Bb

G

You get a phone call from the queen with a hundred heads

G#

She says that they re all dead

Cm

She tried the last one on

It couldn t speak, fell off

B

And now she just wanders the halls

F#

Bb

G#

Thinking nothing, thinking nothing at all

B

He said is this the return to Oz?

E

G

B

The grass is dead, the gold is brown and the sky has claws

There s a wind up man walking round and round

E

B

What once was Emerald City is now a crystal town

(solo) B Bb A F#
B Bb A G F# B

Cm

The wheelies are cutting pavement

Eb

Bb

and the Skeksis at the rave meant

G

to hide deep inside

G#

their sunken faces

Cm

and their wild, rolling eyes

B

But their callous words reveal

F#

That they can no longer feel

Bb

Love or sex appeal

G#

The patchwork girl has come to cinch the deal

E

To return to Oz we ve fled the world

G

B

With smiles and clenching jaws

Please help me friend from coming down

E

G

B

I ve lost my place now and it cant be found

Is this the return to Oz?

E

G

B

The grass is dead, the gold is brown and the sky has claws

There s a wind up man walking round and round

E

B

What once was Emerald City is now a crystal town

(Cm B F# Bb G#) (4x)
