

The Good Die Young
Scorpions

F#m

You wake up

F#m

Watch the world go 'round

E

You shiver

Feeling upside down

F#m

Your heart is beating fast

F#m

Pumping blood to your head

E

Another day to fight

D

C#m

You have a prayer on your lips under the desert sun

F#m

And a loaded gun

F#m

You remember every word

F#m

That your father said

E

Stay out of trouble son

E

And be true to yourself

F#m

You'll be working like a dog

F#m

Raise a family

E

And life will be alright

C#m

But now it's written in the stars if you'll make it out alive

F#m

Out alive

F#m

The good die young

E

C#m

There might be no tomorrow

F#m

In god we trust

C#m

D

Through all this pain and sorrow

F#m

The good die young

E C#m

The flame will burn forever

D E F#m A

And no one knows your name

D E F#m

Bring the boys back home again

F#m

It was a quiet day

F#m

On the streets of hope

When the bomb went off

At the side of the road

F#m

Sounds of breaking steel

F#m

An windshield full of blood

No enemy in sight

C#m

It feels like in a movie scenes are passing by

F#m

Itâ€™s your life

F#m

The good die young

E C#m D

There might be no tomorrow

F#m

In god we trust

E C#m D

Through all this pain and sorrow

F#m

The good die young

E C#m

The flame will burn forever

D E F#m A

And no one knows your name

D E F#m
