I ll be your hunter , You my lioness

If night grows cold I ll stand by you, if you re affected or alone i will come through, oh i will try so undo your arms and don t be reckless with your heart and hold your lungs let go of your heart and your songs of sorrow

G

we ll light the dark , we ll fill the hollow when your hope has faded, know the only way out is the way in open your eyes and i ll be the first thing you see just like a thread i m tied to you, like the buttons on your dress you re tied to me the sky it roars above us like a canopy rolling thunder, like a canopy rolling thunder
