INTRO

This is basically an Amaj chord with a bass note moving from A to B to C# back down to B and A again. It can be approximated as guitar chords like this:

A, Aadd9, A/C#, Aadd9 x2

(If you re feeling lazy, just strum an A the whole time.)

The dark dug up by dogs

The stiches torn and broke

The raw meat fist you choke

Dadd9

Broken necks feather weights press the

Be my love, we will be gods on nite flights

With only one promise, only one way to fall

Glass traps open and close on nite flights

Broken necks feather weights press the walls

Be my love, we will be gods on nite flights

With only one promise, only one way to call
