

Tangle With Your Mind
Scott Weiland

[Intro] E D C#m E B C#m
E D E B A

E
You seem sad, but you re telling lies
C#m
Getting lost in the shuffle of alibis
E
Seasons change, so do you, so do I
C#m
Where do I go?

E
Looking back on indiscretion
C#m
Love reaction, I want action

A E B
No, no, no
A E B
Trying hard not to let you go, oh so cold
A E B
Cause you just never let it show
A Am
There you go wandering along, wandering along

E
People come and people go
C#m
Where do you go when you re not at home?
E
There is always more than meets the eye
C#m
Flew so fast, fell from the sky below

A E B
No, no, no
A E B
Trying hard not to let you go, oh so cold
A E B
Cause you just never let it show
A Am
There you go wandering along, wandering along

E B
I can read your face, you might have noticed
No, no, no

A
I can tangle with your mind, with your mind

Getting lost in the shuffle of alibis

Cause you just never let it show

You never let it show

I can read your face, you might have noticed
No, no, no

A

I can tangle with your mind, with your mind

E A

Oh, with your mind
