Scotty McCreery, Blue Jean Baby

[Intro] X2

E A,

[Verse]

E

She bought em at a thrift store down on Main

For 23 dollars a pair

E

Faded and worn in all the right ways

Thats all she ever wants to wear

C#m G#m A

From the first sweet moment I laid eye on those Levis

C#m G#m A B

I was begging on my knees, pretty please oh wont you be

[Chorus]

E A

My blue jean baby, painted on tight, drivin me crazy

E A

Demin Daisy, turning heads all over town

E

The other girls rocking them mini skirts

A B

But they can t hold a candle to her

E A, E A,

My blue jean baby

[Verse]

She got a little hole right below the pocket

A

Showing off a little skin

E

She don t care if they get a little dirty

A

Tomorrow she gonna wear em again

C#m G#m A

The way theyre hugging on those hips every time she struts by

C#m G#m A B

I know as long as I live I could never get enough of my

[Chorus]

E A

My blue jean baby, painted on tight, drivin me crazy

E A

Demn Daisy, turning heads all over town

E

The other girls rocking them mini skirts

A B

But they can t hold a candle to her

E A

My blue jean baby

[Bridge]

C#m G#m

Yeah, the summer time is the best part of all

F#m B

Cause when she gets too hot, she just cuts them off

[Instrumental] X2

E A B,

[Outro]

E A

My blue jean baby, painted on tight, driving me crazy

E A (no chord)

Denim Daisy, turning heads all over town

E

Yeah, she s my blue jean baby

A

Painted on tight, driving me crazy

E A

That denim Daisy, turning heads all over town

E

The other girls rocking them mini skirts

A B

But they can t hold a candle to her

E A

My blue jean baby

E A B, E A

Yeah, she s my blue jean baby, yeah

B E A F#m

Oh, she s my blue jean baby
