Capo 9th fret
Tuning EADGBE (standard)

C Em
She passed, she s class.

F G
Candy for the eye and a twinkle in her smile,

C Em F G
And she looks like butter wouldn t melt.

C Em
He s bewitched, her daddy s rich.

F G
You can see she comes from money, but she s still a little honey.

C Em F G
And it looks like butter wouldn t melt.

He stuttered

C Em F
G

Ooooooooooh Ooooooh I never thought I d say this, but I think your so "

C Em F G
Awwwwwwwwfully nice. Is that alright? she said fine

F G
He was a little bit scared, a little apprehensive

F G
He was just a boy from a local comprehensive.

But he d heard that.

C Em
Posh girls have good manners, but they go like the clappers,

F G
Because they never got to hang around with boys at school.

Because they never got to hang around with boys at school.

C Em
She seems, pristine,

F G

but don't be deceived, 'cause she's not that naïve

Although it looks like butter wouldn't melt.

C

Em

He had a fright, that night.

F

G

She'd opened his eyes to a world of surprise,

C

Em

F

G

And the butter, oh the butter it had gone, it had gone.

C

Em

She said ooooooooooh oooooh .

F

G

With a twinkle in her eye, she said "oh my"
