Orion said, This body is mine,

C C/B C C/B Am

And you may do with it whatever you like

F G

But when the sky turns red you d better come back home

Em

Cause I can t spend these summer nights alone

C C/B C C/B Am

Orion said, I m just a humble hunter

C C/B C C/B Am

The dog the only company I keep

F G

Forgive me if I fear that you will change me

Em

But I ve seen my fortune written in the leaves

C C/B Am C/G F

Ah, push it through! Ah, push it through!

C C/B Am C/G F

Because the body and the mind can t heal in two

Am Em Am Em

Orion and dog, how the road you ve walked was long

Am Em

But the winter of your song

Orion said, You d better treat me true
C C/B C C/B Am
You should hold me like a bird inside your palm
F G
Cause I can t be just another heart you ve broken
Em
Cause I m getting much too old

C C/B C C/B Am
Orion, she said, I know all men are mortal
C C/B C C/B Am
And the ships in which you travel are full of thieves
F G
But the only way that you will ever have me
