

White Water White Bloom
Sea Wolf

This song is relatively new and the band is pretty much unknown (so I m not expecting many comments). This song though is amazing and once you hear it you will wanna hear it again and again and well you get the drift. I could ve tabbed the intro and solo but my 6 string guitar only has 5 strings (the top one broke) so you ll have to make do with chords. Btw this is my first tab so make comments and suggestions please.

Am C E

I felt the cold of the ice and water

Am C E

Come flowing through as it pulled me under

Am C E

I saw my hand reaching up in the ether

Am C E

And touched the branches in my cold white fever

C E Am

Flow, white water, flow down to me

Am C E

I heard you calling in the city canyons

Am C E

I should have waited by the window lanterns

Am C E

But I went running through the moonlit forest

Am C E

Alone and searching for the cold white current

C E Am

Flow, white water, flow down to me

C E Am

Flow, white water, flow me out to sea

F C

And coming through the mist

E F

Into the calm and clear

C

In the emerald gleam

E F

I can feel you near

C

The dogwoods on the banks

E F

Glowing in the gloom

E

On every naked branch,

Am

A beautiful white bloom

(solo)

Am C E x 4

Am C E

I see you running in the tall wild grasses

Am C E

Young and free along the river rapids

Am C E

Your body folding in the foreign air

Am C E

Your lovely hands reaching down from there

C E Am

Flow, white water, flow clean on through

C E Am

Flow, white water, flow me o'er to you

F C

And coming through the mist

E F

Into the calm and clear

C

In the emerald gleam

E F

I can see you near

C

Standing on the shore

E F

Glowing in the gloom

E

From you parted lips,

Am

A beautiful white bloom
