

Intro-- E with an alternation bass note between the open E string and the G on the third fret.

E D

A

Now that I understand the beauty that they have left to hand

D

me down. When you need a place to to live and no one understands you. And all you want to do is to cry out loud,

E D A

D E D A

but you don't know how. No way, no one. No one understands. No one understands you. No one understands.

D E (like intro chord)

E D

You've got a hand that strikes, when just a touch of love is all the problem needed. And you hurt so much so much and

A D

E D A

they're still not loving you. All you want to do is to cry out loud, but you don't know how.

D

E (like intro) C D C D C
D
 Jade. Jade. Jade. A shade of pain. Pain and paradise. Jade.
C D
 A shade of pain, pain and paradise.

D A C G D
We will find a way, letting the sun go down. I tell you we will find a way, holding the sun. We will find a way, letting the sun go down. I tell you we will find a way, holding the sun.
A C G D A C
G D A C G

Now I understand... (Vamps on the outro while playing verse progression-- E, D, A, D.)