

Magical

Sean Kingston

First Tab but am 99% sure its right.

All open chords:

C G Am F x2

C            G            Am            F
It s magical, the way you make me feel inside
C                    G                    Am                    F
Can t let you go, no matter all I try you stay on my mind
C                                    G
I can hold your hands and you can hold mine
                                  Am                                    F
Now we can rock until the morning light
C                                    G
If I could I would change back the hands of time
                                  Am                                    F
That we can do everything so right

Its played fingerstyle starting from the bass note on each chord.(Similer to REM s
Everybody hurts)

There is also parts that are strummed later on in the song with the same chords.
