Repeat the same for the verses

Oh the moon has been taken,
She knows who you are. The kingdom of Heaven
Is down at the mall. Thereâ€™s a coat for Saint Peter
It was made in Korea today.

The Earth drops ajar as we float into space
We are moving to Mars by 2038
You know that thereâ€™s oil there itâ€™s just a matter of time

Chorus

Eb

Iâ€™m a man

Bb

I am the world

Eb

Iâ€™m a man

I am the Lord

Eb

F (slide it to Bb at american)

But I ainâ€™t that American

Oh she pokes out of science

She changes her skin

He falls out of religion

And washes his sins

They get married in France

Cause the deal is better out there

All the kids have grown up

On driveways and lawns

And the hunters keep secrets on factory farms

The children are hungry theyâ€™re eating a hole through the world

Chorus

Oh Edenâ€™s been stolen

Shopped up and leased

Our heart hits the market before it can bleed

Her name is forgotten

Her ocean is now just a dream

As his love slips away from his work and his home

He puts out the lights and he jerks off alone

Heâ€™s married to cancer, he counts on his internet girl

Well I played like a robot

Iâ€™ve danced like a stone

Iâ€™ve done everything perfect

And I want what I own

I am naked and for once I am not ashamed

Chorus
