

Treasures

Seasick Steve

A very minor-key sad blues ballad!! From the 2011 album You Can't Teach An Old Dog New Tricks.

Although it opens on Dm, it closes on the chord of Dm/C, so it just hangs there unresolved, adding to the melancholy.

Notes

Verse

on the Dm / Dm C sections. Roll on and off the open top E string to F on the first fret.

Like so....

E ---1--p0-h1----1--p0-h1--|
B ---3---3-----3---3-----|
G ---2---2-----2---2-----|
D -0-----|
A -----3-----|
E -----|

Refrain

Little chromatic run on the E string, A to Ab to G, then G to G# to the Am chord (all marked down below)

OK here we go!

Intro

Dm Dm/C x4

Verse 1

Dm	Dm/C	Dm	Dm/C
When I walk	down your street
	Dm	Dm/C	Dm Dm/C
Through your barred windows	you look at me
Dm	Dm/C	Dm	Dm/C
And you wonder	have I come to ask

Dm                  Dm/C                  Dm          Dm/C
For one of your precious things that do not last

Refrain 1

/F  /F#  G
All your treasures
      /G#  Am          /C
All your treasures

Dm Dm/C x 2

                  Dm          Dm/C                  Dm  Dm/C
You think you know me          but you don t know
                  Dm                  Dm/C                  Dm          Dm/C
That there s more to this picture than that shows
                  Dm Dm/C                  Dm          C
And you fear  that I come to steal
                  Dm  Dm/C                  Dm  C
Your sec-urity          that ain t real

Refrain 2

/F  /F#  G
All your treasures
      /G#  Am          /C
All your treasures
