

License To Confuse
Sebadoh

1st song on SeBADoh s album Bakesale. Really fun to play.
The Chords are played like normal chords, when the verse s use the Verse riff

Verse riff:

|-----|
|-----|
|--4--2--0-----|
|-----0--2---|
|-----2---2---|
|-----3-----|

i m not attractive today i m not a sight for sore eyes i m not an Adam or Eve i m just a nervous young thing hear my voice strain as i sing my will won t bend and then break the crate will break and i ll fall i couldn t help it at all

G Em7

i ve got a license to confuse what do we get to lose? a license to confuse

:Verse Riff:

i guess i got what it takes to help me make this mistake it took a while but i learned it took a twist but i turned and now it s clear that i m blind another mountain to climb another distance to fall i couldn t help it at all

G Em7

i ve got a license to confuse what have you got to lose?
a license to confuse

C Am

i shouldn t sound so forlorn regret the day i was born cos here i am and i have been i only need a few friends

:Verse Riff:

my hands are sweating all day like i ve been letting me down

C Am

like i ve been letting me slide just some nonsense on my mind and a license to confuse

C Am Bm

nothing i can lose

C#m Bm C#m G

C#m Bm

bust it build it for a need

C#m G

here s my license that s my right
