

Is There Anybody Out There
Secondhand Serenade

Secondhand Serenade - Is There Anybody Out There?

Half-step down

[Intro] C#m - E - B - B

[Verse]

C#m E
You can say goodbye,
B

To all the things that you have ever known.

C#m E
You can say goodbye,
B

And leave behind the life that you have grown.

C#m E
What s the point,
B

You try to start from scratch,

but get let down,

C#m E
You can say goodbye,

Just to realise there s no-one left around.

C#m B
So what am I fighting for

[ Chorus ]

E
Tell me

Is there anybody out there,

B
Am I swimming through this empty sea alone,

C#m

Am I looking for an answer

A	B
Or am I trying to find a way to get back home.

E
Is there anybody out there,

B
Would you hear me if I screamed or if I cried,
C#m

I m looking for an answer

A B C#m B C#m

And just trying to find a way to survive.

[Verse]

C#m E

You can live or die,

B

Without the chance to find out what your worth,

C#m E

You can live or die,

B

And never find the one that she d deserve,

C#m E

You can walk alone,

B

And live behind the shadows in your heart,

C#m E

You can say goodbye

B

A

Or live and find out you ve been alone right from the start

C#m

B

So what am I fighting for

[Chorus]

E

Tell me

Is there anybody out there,

B

Am I swimming through this empty sea alone,

C#m

Am I looking for an answer

A

B

Or am I trying to find a way to get back home.

E

Is there anybody out there,

B

Would you hear me if I screamed or if I cried,

C#m

I m looking for an answer

B

A

And just trying to find a way to survive

[Bridge]

A

C#m

B

Never thought I would end up all alone, (All alone, all alone..)

A

C#m

B

Every day I am feeling further away from home,

F#m

I can't catch my breath,

A B

But I am holding on

[Chorus/Outro]

E

Is there anybody out there,

B

is this the last time I have to say goodbye,

C#m

Am I staring at my future,

A B

Is it time to take charge of my life,

E

Is there anybody out there

B

Am I swimming through this empty sea alone,

C#m

Am I looking for an answer,

A B

or am I trying to find a way to get back home,

E

Is there anybody out there,

B

Would you hear me if I screamed or if I cried,

C#m

I am looking for an answer,

A F#m

And just trying to find a way to survive,

A B

A way to survive,

E

And I am holding on

End on E
