[Verse]

AM                    G                    F
Hold me now I need to feel relief
AM                    G                    F
Like I never wanted anything
AM                    G                    F
I suppose I ll let this go and find a reason I ll hold on to
AM    G                    F
I m so ashamed of defeat
G                    AM                    F
And I m out of reason to believe in me
G                    AM                    F
I m out of trying to get by

[Chorus]

C            G                    F
I m so afraid of the gift you give me
AM            G                    F
I don t belong here and I m not well
C            G                    F
I m so ashamed of the lie I m living
AM            G                    F
I m right on the wrong side of it all

[Verse]

I can t face myself when I wake up
And look inside a mirror
I m so ashamed of that thing
I suppose I ll let it go till I have something more to say for me
I m so afraid of defeat
And I m out of reason to believe in me
I m out of trying to defy

[Chorus]

C            G                            F
I m so afraid of the gift you give me
AM            G                            F
I don t belong here and I m not well
C            G                            F
I m so ashamed of the lie I m living
AM                            G                            F
I m right on the wrong side of it all

[Bridge]

AM                            G                            F
Hold me now I need to feel complete
AM                            G                            F
Like I matter to the one I need

[Chorus]

C            G                            F
I m so afraid of the gift you give me
AM            G                            F
I don t belong here and I m not well
C            G                            F
I m so ashamed of the lie I m living
AM                            G                            F
I m right on the wrong side of it all
