

All My Tears Washed Away
Selah

Emmylou Harris      All My Tears      written by Julie Miller

Bm
When I go don t cry for me
D                    A                    Bm
In my fathers arms I ll be
Bm
The wounds this world left on my soul
D                    A                    Bm
Will all be healed and I ll be whole
Bm
Sun and moon will be replaced
D                    A                    Bm
With the light of Jesus face
Bm
And I will not be ashamed
D                    A                    Bm
For my savior knows my name
Bm                    D
It don t matter where you bury me
D                    A                    Bm
I ll be home and I ll be free
Bm                    D
It don t matter where I lay
Bm                    A                    Bm
All my tears be washed away
Bm
Gold and silver blind the eye
D                    A                    Bm
Temporary riches lie
Bm
Come and eat from heaven s store
D                    A                    Bm
Come and drink and thirst no more
Bm
So weep not for me my friend
D                    A                    Bm
When my time below does end
Bm
For my life belongs to him
D                    A                    Bm
Who will raise the dead again
Bm                    D
It don t matter where you bury me
D                    A                    Bm

I ll be home and I ll be free

Bm                    D

It don t matter where I lay

Bm            A                                    Bm

All my tears be washed away
