VERSE:
```
      Am          F          ~G
I am stunned, you caught me by surprise
      Am          F          ~G
Assault and run - you outdid yourselves!
      Am          F          G
Beaten numb, I didn t see you sneaking  round the corner
          F                   E
How could I... There is no sight in my third eye

      Am          F          ~G
We re not done, I will hunt you down
      Am          F          ~G
One by one... I ll blow you all to hell!
      Am          F          G
For you faceless, nameless cowards cannot hide
          F                   E
The day of reckoning will arrive
```

CHORUS:
```
Am                              Dm
Strike from behind and knock me to the ground
Dm
Kick me while I m down!
F
Stab me in the back, you bastards
Dm                Em
Tear my heart out of my chest!
Am                              Dm
I ll rise from the ashes, from these ruins of mine
Dm
From the wreckage

A dozen of eyes for an eye - vengeance is mine!
