It s 2AM and I cant sleep
I just thought i d heard your voice in weeks
I thought it was mine, but I m wondering now.
Took your photos off the wall, covered up my pain with alcohol.
and I wanna get over you.

she wont say goodnight,
i know cause she dont sleep at all,
and i know how it feels.
and when im lying awake,
i l call you on the phone just to tell you i m real..
and i hate it..
i hate it.

We said goodbye in a crowded place, and you had tears runnin down your face;
this is how I remember you.
You hold me close, but I wont stay-
My god, did it really turn out this way?
I can t get past the things you do.

she wont say goodnight,
i know cause she dont sleep at all,
and i know how it feels.
and when im lying awake,
i wanna call you on the phone
just to tell you i m real..
and i hate it..
i hate it.

she wont say goodnight,
i know cause she dont sleep at all,
and i know how it feels.
and when im lying awake,
i wanna call you on the phone
i hate it.
