*ive liestened to this alot and i believe the chords above are right, or as close to as i can figure.
 there are two main guitars in the whole song, the first guitar plays the chords above.
 i think the song is in the time signiture 6/8, but im not to sure.
 each chord lasts for a whole bar, i havnt bothered to write out the strumming pattern because its pretty simple and you can always figure out your own.*
