[Chorus]

Swan Song
Set It Off
(this is my first time posting chords, so be nice! if you have any suggestions let me know.)
I played this on Capo 1 but it sounds fine without a capo as well.
[Intro]
You don t even bother anymore
You cut to the bone
Pick up the phone
To hear my swan song
[Em G C G G C D Bm]
[Verse]
Em
                  C
I ll admit I m impressed
             Am
By your vanishing act
           \mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}
Place your bets on your best guess
Of when you re coming back
Em
Draw the curtains
Take the stage
                   Am
Smoke in mirrors underway
Hold your breath here comes the turn
This is where we all got burned
[Pre-Chorus]
Promises are broken
                             Bm
Tell me are you happy now? (whoa oh oh)
Drowning in the hourglass
                               D
I guess our time ran out

С
                                  D
You don t even bother anymore
You cut to the bone
Pick up the phone
          Αm
To hear my swan song
You don t even bother anymore
You left me alone
I m on my own
Tell me where we went wrong
[Verse 2]
Should I turn on the floodlights
        Am
To shine in your eyes
        Em
Just to get you to speak
And explain why you let it die
This new chapter in your life
Read it over once or twice
Burn the pages not the bridge
Sew your wounds without a stitch
[Pre-Chorus]
Em
Promises are broken
                            Bm
Tell me are you happy now? (whoa oh oh)
Drowning in the hourglass
                              Bm
I guess our time ran out
I hope you're listening.
[Chorus]
You don t even bother anymore
You cut to the bone

Pick up the phone
           Am
To hear my swan song
                           Em
                                  D
You don t even bother anymore
You left me alone
I m on my own
Tell me where we went wrong
[Post-Chorus]
                                   G
Tell me where we all went wrong
               D
Tell me where, tell me where
        Bm
                  Em
Tell me where.
[Bridge]
                         \mathbf{Bm}
Abandon the people who shaped who you are Selfish and thoughtless, you drown in the dark
I hope that you realize the damage you ve done
You could not see light even staring at the sun, sun
[Pre-Chorus]
Bm
Promises are broken
                               Em
Tell me are you happy now
Drowning in the hourglass
                               Α
I guess our time ran out
[Chorus]
                                   D
                          Εm
You don t even bother anymore
You cut to the bone
Pick up the phone
           Αm
To hear my swan song
You don t even bother anymore
You left me alone

I m on my own

Em G Em Bm G

Tell me where we went wrong

Am Em Bm D

Tell me where we went wrong

C

Tell me where we went wrong

[Outro]

You don t even bother anymore.
