[Intro]

G* G7* C* Cm*

G* G7* C* Cm*
Every season has a lesson to be learned.
C* Cm*
When all the love is piled, pushed aside, and is burned.
G* G7*
No more driving with the top pulled down or lying on the beach.
C* Cm*
When your winter comes you re so out of reach.

G D F
Summer is over. The leaves of fall change.
C
The good people hiding themselves again.
G D
I have been burned by the sun.
F C
It s cold weather run.
G* G7*
Everybody has a friend to drive them home.
C* Cm*
When all the bars have closed and ice is in bloom.
G* G7*

I could almost see her breath. When she pulled away,
C* Cm
Station wagoneseque, wood-paneling pain.

G D F
Summer is over. The leaves of fall change.

C
The good people hiding themselves again.

G D
I have been burned by the sun.

F C
It s cold weather run.

B Em B
Stare at the sun as it s passing you by
Em D/F# G
And changing your life just means changing your mind.
Am D
Are you changing your mind?

G D F
Summer is over. The leaves of fall change.

C
The good people hiding themselves again.

G D
I have been burned by the sun.

F C
It s cold weather run. Run.

G
The summer is over.

D F
The leaves have all changed.

C
The good people hiding themselves again.

G D
And I have been burned, by the sun.

F C
It s cold weather run.
