[Intro]

A* A7* D* Dm*

A* A7
Every season has a lesson to be learned.
D* Dm
When all the love is piled, pushed aside, and is burned.
A* A7
No more driving with the top pulled down or lying on the beach.
D* Dm
When your winter comes you re so out of reach.

A E G
Summer is over. The leaves of fall change.
D
The good people hiding themselves again.
A E
I have been burned by the sun.
G D
It s cold weather run.
A* A7
Everybody has a friend to drive them home.
D* Dm
When all the bars have closed and ice is in bloom.
A* A7

I could almost see her breath. When she pulled away,
D* Dm
Station wagoneseque, wood-paneling pain.

A E G
Summer is over. The leaves of fall change.

D
The good people hiding themselves again.

A E
I have been burned by the sun.

G D
It s cold weather run.

C# F#m C#
Stare at the sun as it s passing you by
F#m E/F# A
And changing your life just means changing your mind.
Bm E
Are you changing your mind?

A E G
Summer is over. The leaves of fall change.

D
The good people hiding themselves again.

A E
I have been burned by the sun.

G D
It s cold weather run. Run.

A
The summer is over.

E G
The leaves have all changed.

D
The good people hiding themselves again.

A E
And I have been burned, by the sun.

G D
It s cold weather run.
