

I Know
Seventh Day Slumber

Intro-F#m, E, D, E

- (and same through the whole song)

Verse 1.

F#m            E                            D E F#m            E                            D E
I wonder what could be so bad, that it makes you want to die.
I wonder what could be so tragic, makes you want to take your life.
You have your Savior on the cross, while you sit on the throne.
F#m            E                            D E F#m            E                            D E
Put your self up on that cross, and put your Savior on the throne.

Chorus-

F#m            E                            D                            E
I know, it s hard to take what s happening.
F#m            E D                            E
And I know, life is tough sometimes.
F#m            E                            D                            E
I know, it seems like there s no hope for you.
F#m                                    E                            D                            E
But, I know your life, is worth more than you can give.

Verse 2-

It s hard to see beyond your pain, when you feel so dead inside.
It s hard to see what you ve been given, it s hard to find the hope in life.

Repeat chorus.
