(intro) Em Bm D A (2x) Em

Bm
Strange how summer blossoms
D A blew away so late this year Em Bm D
falling from above, soft as snow
A Em
all around you

Bm
The days, I'd like to bring back A D side by side with you
Em Bm
and peer through that old black window
and see red-blue skies so near, but

C say the word
Em
and I'll be ready to make a sacrifice C Am
stay - don't turn around Em Bm D A
there's only one reason

Em Bm
all my life I wished I was here
looking for a chance to cry out Em Bm D
all the pain that turned me into stone Am C and thoughts that haunt me day by day

the word is now

I'm ready to make my sacrifice
C Em
pray - imagine all the things that I never talk about

you're the only one

Bm A D
won't you save me, take me away
G F#
there's no more reason to hide Bm A D
try to make a stand
G F#
it's not only tears in my eyes F C Am Dm somewhere I'm all alone... without you flowers of light descend as the twilight strangles the sky may I, in this vast world ever find another soul to contemplate my silence, forever...

I've felt so lost as I've tried hold me, help me stand don't mind the tears in my eyes someday we'll pass away is there a time to go by?
take a breath and smile fortune is to be alive
