[verse 1]

D        A                    G

You have the right to

Get down on your knees

And you have the right to

          A                G

make yourself believe

          Bm                    G

That you don t know my name

          Bm                    G

But I don t care, you can do it

          D    A                G        B7

Cause you have the right

[chorus]

          Em                                    A

To shake the loneliness and shine the light

          D                                    G                    F#m

Take all your tears and save em for a rainy night

          Em                                    A

Go and wish on every star that s fallen

          D                                    G6                G

Shake your head in wonder when it s all too good to be true

D A G                                    D A G

Like a whole new you

[verse 2]

          D        A                G

So don t lose your way

You can do no wrong

          F#m                                    Em

And don t spend your days just

A                                    G

trying to be strong

          Bm                                    G

When you don t know your name

You know it s ok, you can do it

          D    A                G        B7

Cause you have the right
