

All In My Head
Shawn Mullins

NOTES! PLEASE READ FIRST! -

1. Just before uploading this tab I realised that Shawn Mullins has released a couple of different versions of this song. This tab follows the version that was featured on the SCRUBS SEASON 1 SOUNDTRACK. If this sounds way off when you play it, take a look at tab version 2 as I believe that is the correct tab for the other version of this song.

2. I am working on the solo, I will add it if I manage to get it all down. =)

[Intro G,D,Bm,C x2]

Em        D                    G
I m just trying to get by,
Em        D                                    G
I m just buzzin on a suger high
          C                    Bm                                    Em                    C
Yeah...Everybody moves so fast, no time to wonder why
          Em                    D                                    C
Yeah...I m just tryin to get by.

G                    D
Is it all in my head?
          Bm                    C
Is it all in my head?
          G                                    D                                    Bm                    C
Could everything be so right without me knowin ?

Em        D                                    G
I m just workin for the Man
Em        D                                    G
I m Just tryin to lend a hand
          C                                    Bm                                    Em                    C
Yeah...And If I had a rocket ship, I d never wanna land

Em                    D                    C
Yeah...I m just doin the best I can

G                    D
Is it all in my head?

Bm                    C
Is it all in my head?

G                                    D                                    Bm                    C
Could everything be so right without me knowin ?

G                    D                                    Bm                                    C
Is it all just some game, where everything stays the same?

G                    D                                    Bm                    C
Is it all in my, all in my, all in my head?

Am                    C                                    G
Everybody needs a little love, to make it all work out

Am                                    C                                    D
But I m still lookin to the stars above...Hey! Hey! Hey!

[Just continue playing these chords through the solo - G,D,Bm,C x2]

G                    D
It s all in my head

Bm                    C
It s all in my head

G                    D                                    Bm                    C
It s all in my, all in my, all in my, all in my head

G                    D
Is it all in my head?

Bm                    C
Is it all in my head?

G                                    D                                    Bm                    C
Could everything be so right without me knowin ?

G                    D                                    Bm                                    C
Is it all just some game, where everything stays the same?

G                    D                                    Bm                    C
Is it all in my, all in my, all in my, all in my head?
