

Only Song
Sherwood

Right, here it goes. I play this on my acoustic and it sounds alright :)

D
And I m ok
Bm
Seems I just needed a break
Em
Sat down but now I m up again
A
And finding out I m alone
My friends left me behind
Bm
And into another town
Em
Where this boy is not around

And I don t blame them
I d do the same

G A D
And now I m alone again

A Bm G D
So I ll sing along to the only song I ve ever known
A Bm G D
And I ll sing it out to the lonely ones, oh oh oh
A Bm G D
Those days are gone but the nights roll on taking their place
A Bm G
So I m singing it out to the lonely ones

And then you just carry on the same chords...

Hey, let s write the story again
Where I m your lover and best friend
Pack our backs and we ll leave this old ghost town behind
And into another town
Where this boy is not around
He made the mistake of leaving you

That was mistake number ten

So I ll sing along to the only song I ve ever known
And I ll sing it out to the lonely ones, oh oh oh
Those days are gone but the nights roll on taking their place
So I m singing it out to the lonely ones

Hey, let s write the story again
Where I m your lover and best friend

So I ll sing along to the only song I ve ever known
And I ll sing it out to the lonely ones, oh oh oh
Those days are gone but the nights roll on taking their place
So I m singing it out to the lonely ones, oh oh oh
Oh oh oh

Have fun :)
