VERSE:

E

Twenty eight shouldn t look this old

But the last ten years sure took their toll

A

On the girl in the picture with the plastic crown

E

That sequin dress wouldn t fit her now

F#m

Like it did

B

Before the kids

VERSE:

E

Yea she loves her husband ‘cause she said she would

Oh it ain t so bad but it ain t so good

A

She swore she wouldn t get stuck in this town

E

Now she s cutting coupons two doors down

F#m

From a mall

B

And it goes on

CHORUS:

A

Yea too bad love ain t a local parade

In your uncle s Corvette on a Saturday

E

With all the little girls waiting on you to wave

Dbm

When you re 17

A

You don t know

B

You won t always be

E

Homecoming queen

VERSE:

E

Newspaper clipping and a sash in a box

Are the only things that didn t get lost

A

She married a guy on the real estate sign

E

And it s hard to believe once upon a time

F#m

She was royalty

B

The girl we all wanted to be

CHORUS:

A

Yea too bad love ain t a local parade

In your uncle s Corvette on a Saturday

E

With all the little girls waiting on you to wave

Dbm

When you re 17

A

You don t know

B

That you won t always be

A

Homecoming queen

BRIDGE:

E

Or the captain of the team

F#m

And it ain't what it seems

B A E G A B

It's just a teenage dream

CHORUS:

A

Yea too bad love ain't a local parade

In your uncle's Corvette on a Saturday

E

With all the little girls waiting on you to wave

Dbm

When you're 17

A

You don't know

B

You won't always be

DbM

You don't know

B

You won't always be

E

Homecoming queen
