The Letter
Shooter Jennings

```
C#                      G#
I found a letter just yesterday
Bbm                              F#
And what it say I can t disclose.
C#                      G#
I read that letter and every word it say
Bbm                     F#
And my heart it just froze.
```

```
CHORUS:
            C#                      G#
Ain t it a shame, ain t it a shame
            C#                       F#
Ain t it shame, such a sad, sad shame
                    C#
My baby s been runnin  around,
              G#
All around this town
              F#  Fm Ebm C#   G#
With another man.
```

```
C#                                   G#
I packed her stuff up, put it out on the front porch
Bbm                              F#
When she gets home she ll surely see.
C#                                        G#
You know it was so hard goin  through our life together,
                        Bbm                    F#
Figurin  out what belongs to you and what belongs to me
```

CHORUS:
            C#                      G#
Ain t it a shame, ain t it a shame
            C#                       F#
Ain t it shame, such a sad, sad shame
                    C#
My baby s been runnin  around,
              G#
All around this town
